ADMISSION POLICY

1. The administrative team is given authority to admit qualified students.
2. Special approval by the administration will be required for any exceptions to the stated policies and/or procedures.
3. Parents must subscribe to the Statement of Faith and desire to cooperate with the school in pursuing our mission of developing their child so that he/she will become an effective Christian, living according to Biblical standards.
4. Liberty Christian School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, national or ethnic origin in its admission policies and practices.
5. Liberty Christian School strives to meet the needs of every student entrusted to its care. Liberty Christian School may not possess the resources to provide for students who have:
  - A low academic performance as indicated by report cards and standardized testing
  - Failed the most recent grade level prior to application
  - Displayed significant emotional or disciplinary problems (including suspension or expulsion) at current school
  - A police, court, or criminal record
  - A physical handicap, which would impair the learning process under normal educational conditions
  - A learning disability for which our program is not staffed
6. Pre-School students must be at least 3 years old before August 1 and must be fully toilet trained. Pre-Kindergarten students must be at least 4 years old by August 1.
7. Kindergarten students must be 5 years old before August 1. Kindergarten applicants are interviewed and given a developmental placement test which includes evaluation of their academic, physical, emotional, and social maturity. Applicants for kindergarten must also submit a Kindergarten Health Form which has been completed by their attending physician.
8. All students entering Liberty Christian School for the first time will be given an entrance assessment to assist in determining readiness for the grade level for which they have applied.
9. All secondary students must submit a written testimony of their relationship with Jesus.
10. All new students are accepted on a probationary status for the first year.
11. Applications will be processed in the order in which they are received, only after all procedures have been followed and all paperwork has been submitted.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

7. Upon acceptance, the Tuition Payment Form must be submitted for the enrollment to be complete.

CHRISTIAN PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

Whether we are totally aware of it or not, we live out our daily lives based upon a set of beliefs or convictions—we do not operate out of a void or emptiness. These beliefs affect every aspect of our lives. For the Christian, that set of beliefs has been touched by God through revelation of Himself in creation, in His Son Jesus Christ, and through His written Word. As man chooses to see things from God's perspective and attempts to follow Christ's example for living in accordance with the Scriptures, he is developing a world and life view that is distinctively Christian.

The Christian Philosophy of Education is built on the following tenets:

- 1) God is Creator and Sustainer of all and chooses to reveal Himself to mankind. God is the Source of all knowledge and the ultimate reality. He is sovereign, all-powerful, merciful and loving. The Christian can spend a lifetime learning all the attributes of God (Romans 11:36).
- 2) Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the anointed One, sent in human form to bring about reconciliation between God and man. He is co-creator with God, eternal, the head of the church, first in resurrection, in Whom all of God's fullness dwells. As a teacher, He gave us an example of how to live. He is the source of wisdom, knowledge, and truth. He is Lord! (John 1:44, 2 Corinthians 5:18, Colossians 1:25-29).
- 3) The Holy Spirit is sent by God to empower, instruct, enable, reveal truth, comfort, guide, testify of Christ, and to convict men of sin (John 14:7, Acts 1:8, John 15:26).
- 4) The Bible is the inspired and only infallible, authoritative Word of God. It is eternal, divinely inspired, a light, trustworthy, and profitable for teaching (Psalms 119:105, 2 Timothy 3:15, Psalms 11:7, Colossians 3:16).
- 5) Man, contrary to the Humanistic view, is not the center of the universe nor is he the "measure of all things." Man was created by God, for God, and in the image of God. Man was free to make a choice and chose to disobey God's command, thus allowing sin into the world. His fallen nature separated him from God. Reconciliation is possible only through Jesus Christ (Romans 3:23, 2 Corinthians 5:18).
- 6) God's goal and aim for man is redemption, to restore in him the image of God and to, thus, change him into the likeness of Christ. Man was created to bring glory to God (Romans 6:23, Romans 8:29, Isaiah 43:7).

As the Christian Philosophy is applied to education, it is imperative that these beliefs are acknowledged, embraced, maintained, and reinforced. The value of education is made clear as we are admonished in Scripture to teach, train, instruct, and grow in wisdom, as did Christ. The Christian Philosophy and a personal relationship with the Author of all knowledge, wisdom, and truth provide a central core for the Christian educator that radiates throughout all areas of the educational process and content. The Christian worldview is interpreted and integrated into every area of study. The objectives, methods, and procedures of education now come under the guiding light of God's perspective. How does this translate into Christian education?

Of first necessity is a committed faculty, administration, and school board. While the ultimate responsibility for the education of children lies with the parents (Deuteronomy 4:9, 6:6-7, 11:19), teachers stand before the children daily as role models. A student, when fully trained, will be like his teacher (Luke 6:40). It is an awesome responsibility to instruct a child and assist in the development of his/her mind, attitudes, spiritual condition, social, and emotional growth. Without having a foundation of God's truth, and a present growing relationship with Christ, how can a teacher live out in front of his students a life worthy of imitation? The teacher must first be committed to the Lord Jesus Christ as a believer and follower, be committed to the study, understanding, and application of God's Word as well as be committed to allowing the Holy Spirit to guide in the ways of truth.

The selection of curricula and programming should reflect and support the Christian Philosophy of Education as well as the specific objectives stated by the school. The Christian school supports and reinforces the teaching and training that take place in the home and church. It is also responsible to go further in the areas of academics and skill development that will enable students to become complete and capable Christian citizens, equipped for works of service to God and mankind (Ephesians 4:12). By choosing to attend a Christian school, no student should have to sacrifice receiving quality education of his mind, body, soul and spirit. Each subject area is taught in light of God's existence and His words of truth.

Another distinctive aspect of the Christian school must be in how we treat one another. Christ made clear His desire and command that there be a difference in how Christians treat others, be they friends, brothers, or enemies. We must view others as God created them—in His image! Each one is loved and invited to become a child of God. For God does not wish that any should perish. The command to "love thy neighbor as thyself" further implies extending the qualities of love as Paul described in I Corinthians 13:4-7.

Our actions and attitudes towards students, parents, co-workers, administrators, board members and community members must reflect the qualities of love. If they don't, how shall any man know we are Christian? Again, if we are to teach this to our children and students, they must first see it lived out in our lives just as we have first seen it evidenced in the life of Christ.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

-  We believe the Bible to be the inspired and only infallible, authoritative Word of God (II Timothy 3:16, II Peter 1:21).
-  We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and that God is the Creator of Heaven and Earth (Genesis 1:1, Matthew 28:19, John 10:30).
-  We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ (John 10:33); His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14, Matthew 1:23, Luke 1:35); His sinless life (Hebrews 4:15, 7:26); His miracles (John 2:11); His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood (I Corinthians 15:3, Ephesians 1:7, Hebrews 2:9); His bodily resurrection (John 11:25, I Corinthians 15:4); His ascension to the right hand of the Father (Mark 16:19); and His personal return in power and glory (Acts 1:11, Revelation 19:11).
-  We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost, them that are saved unto the resurrection of life and them that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation (John 5:28, 29).
-  We believe that God loves each person and desires the salvation of all (II Peter 3:9, Romans 5:8).
-  We believe that salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ alone (Romans 10:9, John 3:16).
-  We believe that regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential for salvation of the lost and sinful man and results in the new birth whereby sinful man becomes a new and different creature (John 3:16-19, 5:24, Romans 3:23, 5:8, 9; Ephesians 2:8-10, Titus 3:5).
-  We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit, by whose in-dwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life (Romans 8:13, 14, I Corinthians 3:16, 6:19, 20, Ephesians 4:30, 5:18).
-  We believe the family is the basic unit of society established by God, Who intends for it to consist of one man and woman legally married to each other in a permanent relationship. They are responsible to train and teach their children in biblical principles. Any sexual activity outside of the bond of marriages as defined above is contrary to God's will and design (Genesis 2:24; Deuteronomy 6:6-7; Romans 7:2; 1 Corinthians 7:10; Ephesians 5:22-23, Genesis 2:24; 19:5, 13; 26:8-9; Leviticus 18:1-30; Romans 1: 26-29; I Corinthians 5:1; 6:9; 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8; Hebrews 13:4).
-  We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 8:9, I Corinthians 12:12, 13, Galatians 3:26-28).
-  We believe all of the law and the prophets depend on the commandments to "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and to "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:34-40).

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Liberty Christian School is an accredited member of the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and AdvancED/North Central Association (NCA).

ACSI, with headquarters in Colorado Springs, CO, is the largest and most recognized association of Christian schools in the world and also serves as an aid in legal and legislative matters and the educational ministry of Christian schools. Our school benefits from the special bulletins and periodicals which are issued by the association. Our faculty take part in the professional growth conferences which are conducted annually. Our students benefit from the association by having the opportunity to participate on a broader basis with students from other Christian schools in speech, academic, math, music, and athletic events. ACSI provides certification for teachers based on their qualifications in their academic area, biblical studies, and the Christian philosophy of education. All full-time teachers K-12 are required to be certified by ACSI. We believe that requiring teacher certification and appropriate professional credentials is another area of excellence for which we can strive in doing our best for the Lord.

AdvancED/NCA is a dynamic school accreditation and evaluation organization that protects the public trust and is proactive in promoting a system of education that enhances student learning and the love of learning; fosters healthy, creative and innovative human beings; prepares students to live and learn in an ever changing and diverse world; and provides standards of high quality and evaluation services for schools that ensure successful schooling transitions for its learners. This accreditation affords the school opportunities to excel in several areas without jeopardizing our autonomy as an independent Christian school. Such benefits include but are not limited to increased recognition within the local community and throughout the state, enhanced scholarship opportunities for post-secondary students, and membership in the Indiana High School Athletic Association (IHSAA).

OUR SCHOOL IS AN ACCREDITED MEMBER OF:
◆ ASSOCIATION OF CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS INTERNATIONAL
◆ ADVANCED/NORTH CENTRAL ASSOCIATION

PARENT/GUARDIAN COMMITMENT FORM

Please read each statement and sign at the bottom to signify your agreement with this commitment.

I, the parent/guardian, do hereby state that I have read the Statement of Faith, Mission, Vision, Core Values, and Student Handbook of Liberty Christian School and am willing to abide by and be supportive of them for the training of my child. I understand that enrollment at Liberty Christian School is a privilege, not a right.

I understand that the Christ-centered education of my children is the responsibility of the Christian home, church, and school. Liberty Christian School is an extension of the home and church in this endeavor.

I realize that a Christian school is not a substitute for the local church. Therefore, I will do my best to regularly attend my local church. I also agree to pray for the ministry of the school, staff members, school board, and fellow families as I join in partnership with Liberty Christian School in the Christ-centered education of my child.

I agree to do my part to keep sectarian and denominationalism out of the school at all times, understanding the school's non-denominational position toward doctrines that are divisive.

I agree to support the school's standards of conduct, discipline, and dress code and will cooperate with the school to see that my child meets the standards of appearance and conduct.

I agree to follow the Matthew 18 Principle regarding complaints relating to school rules, procedures, or a disagreement with a teacher, the administration, or any other member of the school community. If I have not reached reconciliation, I will involve the administration to help resolve the conflict.

I agree to be active in the school's programs, attend meetings as requested by the teacher, administration, or school board, and have my child participate in extracurricular activities in accordance with school policy, within reason and unless providentially hindered from doing so.

I agree to support the high academic standards of the school by providing a place at home for my child to study and by giving my child encouragement in the completion of homework and assignments.

I further agree that, should it be necessary to remove my child from the school (whether it be my desire or the school's request), I will cooperate with the administration to make the withdrawal as appropriately as possible, avoiding discussion with those not involved, so as to avert a spirit of dissension and division which would be to the detriment of either the child or the school.
